Call for Papers

LaMiCuS - Language, Mind, Culture and Society, an international open-access online journal of the Polish Cognitive Linguistics Association, is pleased to invite the authors to submit their papers to its 2026 issue.

TOPICS

We invite you to submit the papers presenting new research:

- At the intersection of linguistics, psycholinguistics and cultural studies, in particular written from the cognitive linguistics perspective.

In line with the theme of the conference “Cognitive Linguistics in the Year 2026” organized by the University of Gdańsk, we also welcome the papers on:

- Cognitive linguistics and its interfaces with other linguistics subdisciplines, including discourse-oriented, specialist, and computational perspectives.

HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR ARTICLE

All articles should be submitted with your name and paper title in .doc(x) formats directly to the journal’s email address at lamicus@lamicus.eu.

Languages of the publication are English and Polish.
